Dear Chair Apo and Members of the Honolulu City Council:

It is an honor and a pleasure to offer my letter of strong support for the appointment of Max J. Sword to the Honolulu Police Commission.

As Vice President of Business Advocacy and Government Affairs at The Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii, the state chamber, I oversee government and legislative affairs and business advocacy initiatives. It is through this capacity that I've had the distinct privilege to work closely with Mr. Sword.

Through the years that I've known him, he has always worked effectively and efficiently, with the right attitude. He has consistently shown a high level of leadership and a demonstrable capacity to work well with others. Furthermore, I have always found him to be fair, reasonable, and balanced in his decision-making process. His attributes coupled with his dedication and passion to keep the City of Honolulu a safe and quality place to live, has gained the respect of people from all walks of life.

I am positive that he would make an exemplary member and will be an asset to the Honolulu Police Commission. Therefore, please accept my utmost support for the appointment of Max J. Sword to the Honolulu Police Commission.
